The Shrines - New Danish rock duo releases 2nd single

In their new single, Nightfall, The Shrines take on the fights and the odd feelings of freedom that comes with being strongly attached to someone.

With stealth and raw authenticity, The Shrines bring you their 2nd single: Nightfall!

Nightfall is released on Friday the 13th of July. It will be available on all platforms + download.

The Shrines recently moved from Denmark to Hamburg to pursue new horizons, but they've brought their cool, Scandinavian rock sound with them! Inspired by acts such as The Kills and Jack White, The Shrines also have strong musical connections to the Californian desert rock sound. When they take the stage, solely accompanied by an MPC xl2000; an old school hip hop sequencer, they keep that honesty and simplicity alive!

"...we found that the duo format suits us perfectly.
It's just the two of us and then this stupid machine!"

The Shrines

The duo has already gained interest from a reputable publisher as well as internationally. Early on, The Shrines played at The Social in London, where they were presented by the Music Marketing Agency FRUKT and the publisher house BMI as one of three new, exciting acts. Most recently, they have been presented in Latvia as part of an official Nordic initiative. The Shrines have also delivered songs for two different advertising campaigns and is collaborating with Iceberg Music.

The Shrines have, with their previous single release "Take It Off", achieved radio airplay, over 40,000 video views, has over 4500 followers on Instagram and 2500 fans on Facebook.
